THE COLLECTION

Aglow represents the preciousness of time. Quiet, persistent work that goes unnoticed is not flashy. However, compounded with time can yield something magical.

Underneath the rough, unassuming exterior of an oyster shell, a transformation slowly toils, like a chrysalis patiently awaiting its reveal. Or my little orchid that could, who waited two years before offering the gift of a bloom.

These small miracles are always worth the wait. Perhaps it's because time is the most precious commodity of all.

This collection has become a symbol and physical embodiment of my transformation as a jewelry designer over the years.

Just like an oyster who labored unseen to create a beautiful pearl, I hope to offer a similar tribute to you—an experience of beauty as a reminder of what persistence can achieve.
